YES Welcomes New Board Member

Attorney & Bellevue resident Kimberly Kasin joins for 3 year term

BELLEVUE, Wash. (Sept. 16, 2010)—Youth Eastside Services (YES) is pleased to welcome Kimberly Kasin to the Board of Trustees. Kasin is a family law attorney at Goldberg Jones in Seattle as well as a resident of Bellevue.

Kasin was first introduced to YES by her mother-in-law, Cindy Kasin, who served on the YES board for more than 10 years, retiring May of this year. “The more I learned about the impact YES has on helping at-risk youth in our community, the more interested I was in becoming part of the organization,” said Kasin.

Kasin will work with 24 other community members of the YES Board as well as YES staff in guiding the nonprofit organization’s operations. In addition to being a member at large, she will sit on the Finance Committee.

“We are pleased to welcome Kimberly. Her enthusiasm for youth and the services YES provides to our community will be a wonderful asset and we are thrilled to continue our association with the Kasin family,” said Patti Skelton-McGougan, executive director of YES.
